TRANSCRIPT EXPLANATION

1. 240 units of credit are required for graduation.
2. A minimum grade of “D-” is considered a passing grade for a class.
3. A cumulative GPA of 2.0 is required for graduation.
4. Classes with a grade of “P” indicates a class “passed” and are included in minimum credits for graduation, but do not receive grade point values.
5. “R” preceding a grade indicates the class was retaken; the highest grade point value is calculated in the GPA.
6. Cambiata is ACA’s choir. Kerygma is a select choir for which students audition.
7. Name of honor courses include the word Honors.
8. Advanced Placement course names are indicated by AP.
9. Honors and Advanced Placement grades of A through C- receive an additional grade point unless otherwise noted on transcript.
10. Class rank is based on a student’s weighted GPA.

2019-20 Semester 2 grades of A through F reflect our school’s commitment to continuous learning throughout the imposed COVID-19 quarantine period. There was no change to grading expectations, as students completed nearly all curriculum content and assessments.
